The best way to travel

In the most northern state of the USA you'll see every type of modern transport. But during the winter months the state of Alaska becomes one of the coldest parts of the world. Temperatures fall as low as  $-50^{\circ}\text{C}$ . Car engines can freeze and even if your car starts, the snow and ice on the road can make travel impossible. When the weather is like this, the best way to travel is with a team of huskies pulling you. That's according to people like Geoff Roland who prefers travelling by dog sledge. 'Huskies might not be as fast as a modern snowmobile but they are better for the environment. The journey is also much quieter than by snowmobile. It's what makes travel through the wilderness so enjoyable.'

When Geoff was younger, he took part in the Iditarod. The word Iditarod originally comes from an old native American word meaning 'a faraway place' but nowadays it's the name of the world's longest dog sledge race which takes place in Alaska each spring. The 1,600 kilometre route follows the old roads which the original Indians once used. As years passed, aeroplanes and snowmobiles became more common and people started to forget about the old trails. But in 1973 a group of people started the race in order to maintain Alaska's history and its traditional form of transport. Some people criticise the Iditarod because they think it's cruel for the dogs but Geoff disagrees: 'Huskies are natural racers. I think they're much happier when they're in front of the sledge.'

You are visiting your grandmother, who lives in the country and has a duck farm. You ask your grandmother, "How did you learn how to raise ducks?" She says, "There are lots of websites on the Internet. For example, there is a Duck Farm forum that I like to visit. It helped me a lot when one of my ducks hurt its leg. I'll show you the conversation I had."

Joan_72	Hello! Can I give aspirin to my duck? She's 1 year old and her leg hurts. There's no veterinarian around. I just don't know how to help the duck to get rid of pain. Thank you for your help.
Monica	I'm not sure if human's medications are safe for animals. I think you should find a vet.
Steve1	I gave a tablet of aspirin to one of my ducks when she hurt her wing. Everything went fine. But I think, it can be dangerous to give too much.
Jessica_Brown	How did you know that her leg hurts?
_user21	Come to my website and get 50% discount for the first order.
DuckFarmer	Hello, Joan. My brother is a veterinarian. As far as I know, it is OK to give birds aspirin if they are hurt. But you should follow the instructions that you can find on Veterinarian Society website. It can be dangerous to give a bird more than 10mg of aspirin per day. Good luck with your pets!

16 What does Joan_72 want to find out?

- 1) If it is ok to give aspirin to a bird.
- 2) How often she can give medications to a duck.
- 3) Where she can find a veterinarian.
